Travelling sustainably to the event

Environmental sustainability is at the core of the TUGTECHNOLOGY Conference and our delegates' travel, and accommodation plays a substantial part in the event's carbon footprint. Below is our guide to attending the event in the most environmentally friendly way available to you.

Rail

International rail links to Antwerp

UK

From the UK, delegates can catch the Eurostar from London St-Pancras Station to Antwerp, with just one change at Brussels-Midi/Zuid. The total train time is generally three hours and 17 minutes. Delegates can book directly with Eurostar.

France

There are direct trains from Paris Gare du Nord to Antwerp, which typically take just over two hours each way. You can book trains via Eurostar, SNCF or third-party ticket providers.

Domestic rail links to Antwerp

There are direct trains that run between Bruxelles-Midi and Antwerp Central Station, operated by SNCB/NMBS. The journey time is typically between 45 minutes and an hour. You can book tickets via this link or on third-party websites.

Conference venue from Antwerp Central Station via Metro

The Antwerpen Groenplaats Metro Station is a three-minute walk from the Hilton Antwerp Old Town. From Antwerp Central Station, you can walk to Antwerpen Diamant Metro Station, and travel three stops for approximately six minutes, to reach The Antwerpen Groenplaats Metro Station.

Walking

It is about a 20-minute walk from Antwerp Central Station to the conference venue, and there are generous pavements that make walking in the city safe. You will also be walking past beautiful buildings and other sights along the way.

Travelling from Antwerp International Airport to the conference

The Hilton is 6 km away from the airport. For information on how to travel to the conference from the airport using public transport, please visit the airport website. The nearest metro station to the hotel is the Antwerpen Groenplaats Metro Station.

Cycling

Antwerp is a city that is well set up for cyclists, and if you plan to travel to the conference via bicycle, you can plan your safe route via this website.

Electric vehicles

For guests of the Hilton, there are electric vehicle charging stations available onsite. If you are staying elsewhere and driving an electric vehicle, there are many other charging points available in Antwerp, mainly at petrol stations and in public car parks. Please look for your most convenient charging point using this website.
